

A NOTE ABOUT REALIGNMENT
February 28, 2008

Since my last letter to the council the CRC has made a few decisions:

The new headquarters will be in the Little Rock area; initially we will use the North Little Rock Service Center.

The surviving council will be NOARK. All this means is that we'll use their tax identification number when doing the legal work for our new council.

All legacy council offices will remain open to serve the girls and volunteers in that jurisdiction.

We are soliciting bids for legal services.

We have employed Mega Meeting Video and Web Conferencing, a service that allows us to meet with audio visual contacts. This service will be available to the subcommittee as well as the CRC.

The new council has a name; it is Girl Scouts of Greater Arkansas.

There is lots of work to be done before October 1st, our new council's starting date, and lots of people are working on it. All of us are excited about the greater opportunities the new council will give to our girls.
